Materials Accepted at Full-Service Drop-off Centers:

Recycled Materials

Only clean acceptable recyclables will be accepted from commercial sources. This includes cardboard, paper, newspaper, Aluminum cans, Plastic bottles and jugs with necks, Metal appliances and glass. Materials must be sorted according to instructions at the site. The County has the right to reject any delivery if that material is no longer acceptable or inappropriate for recycling.

Bulky Waste

Non-spoilable items that may include furniture, couches tables, chairs, clothing, mattresses and box springs (Maximum 6 as bulky, then converts to mattress only fee schedule; $110/ton).

Household Hazardous Waste

Business/Commercial entities are NOT ELIGIBLE to use the Household Hazardous Waste program due to State and Federal regulations. The County offers events throughout the year where business/commercial entities can bring hazardous materials, contact SolidWaste@MeckNC.gov for information.

Construction & Demolition Waste (C&D)

The waste material generated in the construction, renovation or removal of structures. C&D debris may include concrete, brick, block, wood, gypsum, asphalt pavement and shingles, metal, miscellaneous plastics, carpet, carpet padding, windows, doors, fixtures, and wood, as well as land-clearing debris.

Yard Waste

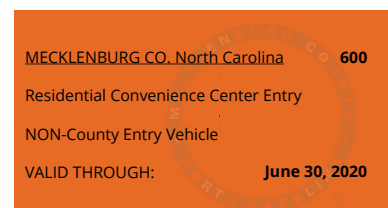

Materials such as brush, grass clippings, limbs less than 5 feet long, leaves, untreated wooden pallets, and unpainted wooden pallets. Note: Sorry we cannot accept food scraps. For additional information on food waste, visit WipeOutWaste.com.

Attention all customers...

Any contractor or commercial entity, or any material delivered in a commercial vehicle, payment with a commercial credit card or vehicle providing services for hire will be charged according to the commercial schedule. This includes any vehicle with ladder racks, any external advertising or multiple visits within a 72 hour period. Materials may need to be sorted into separate bins for proper processing and disposal. The fee booth may assign stickers to indicate the weight of your empty vehicle or trailer. Payment is expected for each load unless you establish a Monthly Billing Account with Mecklenburg County. Contact SolidWaste@MeckNC.gov if you desire to establish a monthly account.
