

Little Sugar Creek Greenway ~ Catch The Vision

Catch the vision and help place the Little Sugar Creek Greenway on the Charlotte/Mecklenburg map. Picture a greenway in the midst of Charlotte's thriving skyscrapers and suburbs: an educational and environmentally-sound outdoor space that lets you enjoy the beauty of this community.

With your help and support, the Little Sugar Creek Greenway can be built and a name made for Charlotte/Mecklenburg. When complete, the greenway will feature 12.5 miles of paths, habitats and flowing water from Cordelia Park just north of uptown, through the Midtown Square area to the South Carolina line, conveniently linking CPCC, CMS and the Park Road and Carolina Place shopping areas. A space for quiet reflection or a social hot spot, the greenway will be built with the diversity that is Charlotte/Mecklenburg in mind. The walker, jogger, tourist, nature lover, bench sitter or socialite will delight in this path that connects us all.

We're prepared. We've taken concepts developed 30 years ago, applied today's thinking and technology and now have a progressive greenway master plan. We're poised to lead the South as a model of successful urban and suburban development. All we need is you.

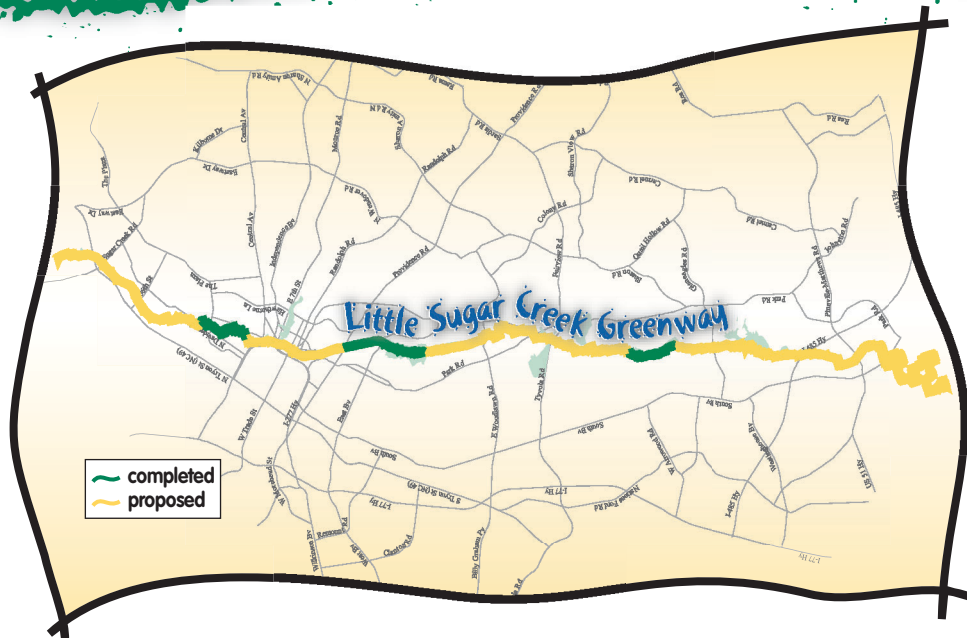

Choose the way you'd like to contribute and make this vision a reality. The following pages give you choices – and the chance to make history. The Little Sugar Creek Greenway – Catch the Vision.
