

Updated April 29, 2020

NOTE: These projections were prepared by Mecklenburg County Public Health, in partnership with Atrium Health and Novant Health using the University of Pennsylvania's COVID-19 Hospital Impact Model for Epidemics (CHIME). These projections reflect expected hospital resource demand for the entire region, including neighboring counties in the primary service areas of both health systems assuming sustained social distancing at 45% reduction from baseline.