

Danny Phillips is serving his fourth term as a commissioner. He was first elected to public office in November 2011.

Phillips is a local farmer and the owner of Phillips General Stores and Old Store. His past volunteer experience includes serving as a member of the Rural Hill Board, Lake Norman Chamber, Visit Lake Norman Board and the Hugh Torance House and Store Board.

Danny and his family have called Huntersville home since 1969.