

Sean Herndon moved from Boston, MA in 2015 with his wife Wendy Atherton to Cornelius, NC. He is passionate about real estate and has been in sales for the past 25 years. Sean has been with Beacon Group Properties at Keller Williams for 2 years and prior to making real estate his full-time focus, he grew a successful career in Healthcare, Biotech and IT staff augmentation. Within the four years Sean has been in Cornelius, NC he has become member of Lake Norman Chamber of Commerce which he a participant of the Leadership program and is serving as an Ambassador, member of the North Meck Rotary serving on the Board for Training and elected for Membership for the following year, member of the Kenton Place Toastmasters, and serves where he can for the Town of Cornelius.